

29. Developing Women Leaders

Overview

Why do women still find it difficult to attain top leadership positions? In this course, you'll learn about barriers to women's advancement as leaders and ways to break through them.

Learning Objectives

- recognize examples of biases and barriers that can hinder women from attaining top leadership positions
- identify actions that help improve women's chances of attaining leadership positions
- identify methods for cultivating a leader identity
- recognize effective strategies to use when negotiating for advancement opportunities
- identify appropriate responses to feedback that conveys gender bias
- recognize actions for cultivating sponsors